

ADVOCACY IN ACTION: 2017 LEGISLATIVE AGENDA

Thursday, January 5, 2017, 3 – 4:30 p.m.

PURPOSE

The Minnesota state legislature will convene on Tuesday, January 3, 2017 and there will be several proposals relating to the provision of aging services. This webinar will discuss the public policy initiatives and priorities of the Long Term Care Imperative and the LeadingAge Minnesota Grassroots Advocacy Campaign.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Become familiar with the session priorities of both the Governor and the Minnesota State Legislature in 2017.
- Describe the critical priorities for LeadingAge Minnesota and its members in this session, including a new reimbursement system for Elderly Waiver Reform, Phase 2 of Value-Based Reimbursement for Care Centers and programs to elevate the profession of caregiving to recruit and retain employees.
- Learn how to engage state lawmakers in advancing the session agenda through the LeadingAge Minnesota Grassroots Advocacy Campaign.

SUGGESTED AUDIENCE

- Adult Day Services Directors
- CEO/Administrators
- Finance Professionals
- Housing and Community Services Professionals
- Site Leaders/Campus Administrators
- Social Services Professionals
- Other interested staff
