

NURSE LUNCH AND LEARN: COMMUNICATION AND CONVERSATIONS WITH DIRECT CARE STAFF

Wednesday, Feb. 15, Noon – 12:30 p.m.

PURPOSE

How nurses communicate with their teams, especially the direct care team, can make a difference in resident care outcomes and team culture. Nurses are required to supervise unlicensed staff providing direct care and this requires communication and direction during the shift. Learn and practice tips to make your communications with staff effective.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Discuss strategies to make conversations positive and successful.
- Participate in a short exercise to work through a communication situation.
