2023 Stars Among Us AWARDS

The 2023 Stars Among Us Awards are open for nomination. Now, more than ever, we encourage you to lift up your staff team and recognize all they do for your organization and those you serve.

Regardless of role, every one of our staff, volunteers, and leaders have given their all to serve older adults the last few years — through pandemic, staffing shortages, and disruption. Honor their commitment and resilience by shining the light on their efforts.

We'll celebrate the Stars at the Institute & Expo, Feb. 8-10, 2023.

Organizational Awards – Excellence in Practice

- Process Improvement (Performance Excellence)
- Safe Care for Seniors

Individual Awards

- Rising Star
- Caregiver of the Year
- Volunteer of the Year
- Spirit of Aging
- Outstanding Leadership
- Board Trustee of the Year

Eligibility

Stars Among Us Awards are open to provider organizational members and their staff, volunteers and residents/customers (providers of housing, health services, adult day services, supportive services; and their respective owner or management organizations).

Deadline

Nomination deadline for all awards is midnight Monday, Sept. 12, 2022.

Selection and Notification

The LeadingAge Minnesota Awards & Recognition Committee reviews all nominations and selects award recipients. Recipients will be notified in Nov. 2022.

Rewards, Accolades and Celebrations

Award recipients are publicly honored at the LeadingAge Minnesota Institute, Feb. 8-10, 2023 in St. Paul. Feature videos may be produced for select awards. Our public relations team will prepare news releases and photographs to assist with local media outreach.

Every person nominated receives a beautiful frame-worthy certificate of recognition.

How to Nominate

- Exceptional commitment and actions to enhance and enrich the lives of aging persons served by the organization.
- Share a story that illustrates this person's commitment to good governance.
- One letter of support from the board chair, board member, or site leader.
- Up to three additional letters of support from board members, team members, or community members (optional).

ORGANIZATIONAL AWARDS: EXCELLENCE IN PRACTICE

The Excellence in Practice Awards are a platform to share promising programs and initiatives with other LeadingAge Minnesota members to help advance and transform the way we serve older adults. These awards align with two signature LeadingAge Minnesota programs – Performance Excellence in Aging Services and Safe Care for Seniors. Up to four total awards will be given.

Sharing Your Success

Award recipients are asked to present their winning programs at the 2023 Institute as a concurrent educational session with an emphasis on demonstrating what other organizations can learn from their experience and/or adopt or replicate the practice.

Process Improvement (Performance Excellence)

Highly successful organizations are not just satisfied with meeting requirements; they aspire to excellence, always asking “what is our performance today?” and “how can we improve?” Nominations in this category should describe a process improvement project in which the organization went beyond what is required to achieve a level of high performance in one of the key organizational excellence categories: Leadership; Strategic Planning; Customer Engagement; Staff Engagement; or Operations.

Eligibility

This award is available to any provider organization regardless of enrollment in the Performance Excellence in Aging Services program.

Ideas

Implementing a new voice of the customer process that engages residents and family throughout the year vs. annually; developing a new program that is staff-led to gather and implement improvement opportunities; onboarding process, or other key process, to be more streamlined with ongoing input from the individuals impacted by the process; evaluating and enhancing the strategic planning process to be more systematic and data-driven.

Nomination Requirements/Criteria

- Executive Summary – description of the process improvement project, why it was selected, who (roles) was involved, the goal of the project, and the resulting improvement in the process/program.
- How does this process improvement project demonstrate excellence in practice?
- How did you, or will you, evaluate the process to identify future improvements?
- What did you learn through this process that can be applied to other areas of your organization?

ORGANIZATIONAL AWARDS: EXCELLENCE IN PRACTICE

Safe Care for Seniors

Celebrates an organization that demonstrates the key principles of the Safe Care for Seniors Pledge — keeping those we serve safe from harm and providing care with respect and dignity always.

Eligibility

This award is available to any provider organization that is engaged in the Safe Care for Seniors program. At a minimum, the organization must have adopted the Safe Care for Seniors Pledge.

Ideas

Projects or initiatives related to Safe Care for Seniors Action Steps, such as: open and transparent communication with residents/families; a unique approach to engaging staff in Safe Care; instituting an effective approach to root cause analysis related to safety events or to identify opportunities for improvement in quality or safety; programs/approaches to providing support to caregivers involved in a harm event; project to get to know residents as individuals; medication safety initiative based on review of medication error data; integrating “Just Culture” principles within human resources practices; improving your process for staff to speak up and report safety issues or concerns.

Nomination Requirements/Criteria

- Executive Summary – description of the Safe Care for Seniors program or initiative, why it was developed, purpose and goals, and financial implications for start-up, implementation, and ongoing operation.
- How does this program support the key principles of the Safe Care for Seniors Pledge?
- How did you, or will you, evaluate if this project/initiative achieved its stated purpose?
- How can this project/initiative be replicated by other providers?
