This October's District Meetings focus on the biggest pain point for many providers – workforce. Representatives from the Minnesota Department of Economic and Employment Development (DEED) share the latest data, projections, and insights about Minnesota's workforce demographics and trends, how aging services compares to other sectors, and where to find untapped labor pools. You'll also be among the first to see state and district-level workforce data from LeadingAge Minnesota's Data Portal, a free tool for members to glean important benchmarking data specific for your setting.

Agenda:

Registration, refreshments, and informal networking
